

IQY Technical College

The nature of the courses taught by Faculty of Professional Studies focus on providing the advanced studies for the people working in industries and weekends and online classes are main teaching mode.

The nature of the courses taught by Faculty of Skills Training focus on providing the basic skills courses for school leavers and new skills training for the workers working in industries, weekdays and week ends classes are main teaching mode.