TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Subject: MR. KYAW NAING

This is to confirm that Mr. Kyaw Naing was employed as an International United Nations Volunteer IT School Teacher at the Niue High School based in Niue from March 2002 to December 2005. His Terms of Reference included the establishment and teaching of the IT curriculum for the senior level students at Niue High School, and maintenance of their computer laboratory. The equipment was damaged by a natural disaster in 2004, which meant he had to rebuild the lab virtually from scratch with hardly any budget support from the Department of Education. This he did to the best of his ability thus leaving the High School with some working PCs and software plus a long term plan for its upkeep and development.

Mr. Naing was also involved in the set up of the Taoga Niue website, which was funded by the UNDP as a site for indigenous materials to be loaded and updated. Because his wife was the Project Manager of the Taoga Niue Project, he provided much technical and moral support to the project implementation including agreeing for the project to be temporarily located in their home and many hours of voluntary work on the website. This was a remarkable contribution from the UNV, which is very much appreciated.

A serious and hard-working individual Mr. Naing's contribution to Niue was very much appreciated and we wish him every success in his future endeavours.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Joyce Yu', is written over the typed name.
